

WEIDMANN

Weidmann Electrical Technology, a business area of the Weidmann Group, is the world's leading developer and manufacturer of specialized products and services for transformers and cellulose-based, sustainable industrial materials. The Weidmann Group, headquartered in Rapperswil-Jona, Switzerland, is active worldwide in more than 30 locations and employs a staff of 2'800.

Weidmann Electrical Technology AG based in Rapperswil SG is looking to recruit a

Senior Technical Expert / Technology Manager (m/f)

Your tasks: Technical consulting (internal, external, to OEM customers as well as utilities etc.) • Management and participation in technology and R&D projects • Development of internal expertise in transformers (design, production, operation) / transformer insulation • Representation of Weidmann in technical expert committees (IEC, IEEE, CIGRE etc.) and at industry conferences • Management of technical resources

Your qualifications: Design of power transformers / transformer insulation systems • Strong communication and presentation skills, covering technical topics • Project management • Strong interpersonal skills and effective team management • Ability to work in a multicultural environment (internal and external) • Significant experience in the management of technical groups • Fluent in English (company language), German of significant benefit, other languages beneficial • Willingness for business trips abroad (20 – 30% of time) • Legal right to work in Switzerland or the EU region

We are looking forward to receiving your complete application.

Hansjürg Tschümperlin

hansjuerg.tschuemperlin@weidmann-group.com

TD 055 221 46 61